About SFASU Band Camps

Description of Camp
The Middle School Band Camp is designed to accommodate band musicians of all levels. This camp is open to students entering grades 7th-8th in the fall of 2019. Whatever the level of proficiency, each camper will be presented new, fun challenges and opportunities that will increase their abilities, build confidence, and develop good habits and attitudes as musicians.

Staff
Every activity of camp life is supervised and attended by one or more of the following:

1. Camp Faculty— Faculty consists of SFASU professors, administrators, outstanding band directors from across the state, distinguished music educators, and performing artists. Together we have more than 70 music professionals that are employed by the SFASU Summer Band Camps, teaching full band, sectionals, master classes, electives and optional private lessons.
2. Resident Assistants—“RA’s” trained and certified by the SFASU Housing and Student Life personnel.
3. SFASU Band Camp Counselors—SFASU undergraduate and graduate students, most of whom are studying to become music educators.

Our camp directors are Dr. David Campo and Dr. Tamey Anglley
